| OPICX1X  | lilitary Information from Ismar.   | Organis de la company de la co |
|--|--|--|
| er seem teete enset  | Thinked to be a second on the property and the conformal and the property of the conformal and the con | Mary percen  |
| 5X1CVALUATI  | IONPLACE OBTAINED  | To The said  |
| 5X1C   | Personal Advantage Control of the Co | 2  |
| MIE OF   | CONTENT  |  |
| ATE OB5X1A   | DATE PREPARED 16 August 1957   |  |
| EFEREN   | NCES   | (C) / 1  |
| GES  | 2ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)   | c ()   |
|  |  |  |
| EMARKS   | 25X1X  |  |
| MIT/MATERIAL PROPERTY AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE PARTY AND ADMI |  | m (man)  |
| 70.00  |  | Marie Company  |
|  | etulia RAM 25X1X   |  |
|  |  |  |
| OURCE  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1  | used the same motor vehicles. Leavy machine guns and infantry guns of about were seen with the infantry unit and 76.2-mm AT guns with the artillery unranking officer of the infantry unit was a colonel and that of the artilled a major.  The following movements were observed in Wismar between 5 and 19 July:   |  |
| 2.(10  | ranking officer of the infantry unit was a colonel and that of the artilled a major.   | nt 100-mm nit. The ary unit  rymen of the  coward ve by un.  |
| 16.X1C   | ranking officer of the infantry unit was a colonel and that of the artilled a major.  The following movements were observed in Tismar between 5 and 19 July:  5 July. Two trucks with  and towing infantry guns of about 100-mm, were seen leaving the premises of Dornier Terke.  10 July. A convoy of 8 trucks with  the Dornier Terke. Three of the trucks were occupied by infantrymen and fi artillerymen. One truck towed a 100-mm infantry gun and one a 76.2-mm AT grant from the direction of the Dornier Terke.  | ot 100-mm nit. The lak signia, structor  |
| 16.X1C   | ranking officer of the infantry unit was a colonel and that of the artilled a major.  The following movements were observed in Tismar between 5 and 19 July:  5 July. Two trucks with  and towing infantry guns of about 100-mm, were seen leaving the premises of Dornier Terke.  10 July. A convoy of 8 trucks with  the Dornier Terke. Three of the trucks were occupied by infantrymen and fi artillerymen. One truck towed a 100-mm infantry gun and one a 76.2-mm AT grantillerymen. One truck towed a 100-mm infantry gun and one a 76.2-mm AT grantillerymen and 26 artillerymen. The direction of the Dornier Terke. Some of the soldiers car heavy machine guns.  On 19 and 20 July, 80 infantrymen and 80 artillerymen were engaged in join practice firing at the target ranges at Koepernitztal. On another day durit period of observation, 200 infantry troops were seen marching out of the Kaserne to go swirming. A senior lieutenant and two sergeants with tank in whom source saw on 23 July, were believed to belong to the AT artillery in personnel. An infantry major was seen riding to the railroad station on tr C 2-30-76 the same day. He produced a rail travel authorization for a trick.  | ot 100-mm nit. The lak signia, structor  |
| (16)X1C  | ranking officer of the infantry unit was a colonel and that of the artilled a major.  The following movements were observed in Tismar between 5 and 19 July:  5 July. Two trucks with  and towing infantry guns of about 100-mm, were seen leaving the premises of Dornier Terke.  10 July. A convoy of 8 trucks with  the Dornier Terke. Three of the trucks were occupied by infantrymen and fi artillerymen. One truck towed a 100-mm infantry gun and one a 76.2-mm AT grantillerymen. One truck towed a 100-mm infantry gun and one a 76.2-mm AT grantillerymen and 26 artillerymen. The direction of the Dornier Terke. Some of the soldiers car heavy machine guns.  On 19 and 20 July, 80 infantrymen and 80 artillerymen were engaged in join practice firing at the target ranges at Koepernitztal. On another day durit period of observation, 200 infantry troops were seen marching out of the Kaserne to go swirming. A senior lieutenant and two sergeants with tank in whom source saw on 23 July, were believed to belong to the AT artillery in personnel. An infantry major was seen riding to the railroad station on tr C 2-30-76 the same day. He produced a rail travel authorization for a trick.  | ot 100-mm nit. The lak signia, structor  |
| (1 C )X1C3.   | ranking officer of the infantry unit was a colonel and that of the artilled a major.  The following movements were observed in Tismar between 5 and 19 July:  5 July. Two trucks with  and towing infantry guns of about 100-mm, were seen leaving the premises of Dornier Terke.  10 July. A convoy of 8 trucks with  the Dornier Terke. Three of the trucks were occupied by infantrymen and fi artillerymen. One truck towed a 100-mm infantry gun and one a 76.2-mm AT grantillerymen. One truck towed a 100-mm infantry gun and one a 76.2-mm AT grantillerymen and 26 artillerymen. The direction of the Dornier Terke. Some of the soldiers car heavy machine guns.  On 19 and 20 July, 80 infantrymen and 80 artillerymen were engaged in join practice firing at the target ranges at Koepernitztal. On another day durit period of observation, 200 infantry troops were seen marching out of the Kaserne to go swirming. A senior lieutenant and two sergeants with tank in whom source saw on 23 July, were believed to belong to the AT artillery in personnel. An infantry major was seen riding to the railroad station on tr C 2-30-76 the same day. He produced a rail travel authorization for a trick.  | ot 100-mm nit. The lak signia, structor  |
| (1 C )X1C3.   | reaking officer of the infantry unit was a colonel and that of the artillory unit also are jor.  The following movements were observed in dismar between 5 and 19 July:  5 July. Two trucks with and towing infantry guns of about 100-mm, were seen leaving the premises of Dornier derke.  10 July. A convoy of 8 trucks with the Bornier derke. Three of the trucks were occupied by infantrymen and for artillerymen. One truck towed a 100-mm infantry gun and one a 76.2-mm AT given from the direction of the Bornier derke, bone of the soldiers car heavy machine guns.  On 19 and 20 July, 80 infantrymen and 80 artillerymen were engaged in join practice firing at the target ranges at Koepernitztal. On another day duri period of observation, 200 infantry troops were seen marching out of the Kaserne to go swirring. A senior lieutenant and two sergeants with tank in whom source saw on 23 July, were believed to belong to the AT artillery in personnel. An infantry major was seen riding to the railroad station on tr C 2-30-76 the same day. He produced a rail travel authorization for a trip Frankfurt/Oder.   | ot 100-mm nit. The lak signia, structor  |
| (1 C )X1C3.   | reaking officer of the infantry unit was a colonel and that of the artilled a major.  The following movements were observed in mismar between 5 and 19 July:  5 July. Two trucks with and towing infantry guns of about 100-mm, were seen leaving the premises of Dornier worke.  10 July. A convoy of 8 trucks with the Dornier worke. Three of the trucks were occupied by infantrymen and fi artillerymen. One truck towed a 100-mm infantry gun and one a 76.2-mm AT guns from the direction of the Dornier worke. Some of the soldiers car heavy machine guns.  On 19 and 20 July, 80 infantrymen and 80 artillerymen were engaged in join practice firing at the target ranges at Koepernitztal. On another day duri period of observation, 200 infantry troops were seen marching out of the Kaserne to go swirning. A senior lieutenant and two sergeants with tank in whom source saw on 23 July, were believed to belong to the AT artillery in personnel. An infantry major was seen riding to the railroad station on tr C 2-30-76 the same day. He produced a rail travel authorization for a trip Frankfurt/Oder.  | ot 100-mm nit. The lak signia, structor  |
| (1 C )X1C3.   | reaking officer of the infantry unit was a colonel and that of the artillory unit also are jor.  The following movements were observed in dismar between 5 and 19 July:  5 July. Two trucks with and towing infantry guns of about 100-mm, were seen leaving the premises of Dornier derke.  10 July. A convoy of 8 trucks with the Bornier derke. Three of the trucks were occupied by infantrymen and for artillerymen. One truck towed a 100-mm infantry gun and one a 76.2-mm AT given from the direction of the Bornier derke, bone of the soldiers car heavy machine guns.  On 19 and 20 July, 80 infantrymen and 80 artillerymen were engaged in join practice firing at the target ranges at Koepernitztal. On another day duri period of observation, 200 infantry troops were seen marching out of the Kaserne to go swirring. A senior lieutenant and two sergeants with tank in whom source saw on 23 July, were believed to belong to the AT artillery in personnel. An infantry major was seen riding to the railroad station on tr C 2-30-76 the same day. He produced a rail travel authorization for a trip Frankfurt/Oder.   | ot 100-mm nit. The lak signia, structor  |

Approved For Release 2001/03/06: CIA-RDP82-00457R008600100009-1

25X1A

CHEROCALROL/OS OFFICIALS ONLI -2-

25X1C

25X1C

25X1A

Comment. The information on Soviet troops in Wismar indicates no essential changes over the last report of 9 May 1951 by the same source. in the present report belong to the 94th Gds Mtz Mille Div and some to the GOFG and the SCC. It appears that the elements of the 94th Gds Mtz Rifle Div in Wismar were at the post on 23 July 1951.

CONFIDENTIAL

SECRET CONTROL OF OFFICIALS ONLY